Dstreet Entertainment Foundation collects, and repairs musical instruments. The intent of the program is to make these instruments available to families with an income level below $, or are having serious financial strain.

As part of the application process, we request that the student or parent/guardian write a summary outlining the following:

- What music program the student is already in, or will be participating in
- Location of program
- Name of band teacher
- What music means to the student, and the family
- Why the student chose the particular instrument

The application will be reviewed by the Dstreet Board of Directors. Applicants will be notified when their information is processed.
